

meet the TEACHER

Ms. Trish Collins

Pre-k

Trish Collins, an experienced educator with a 30-year tenure, attended Atlantic Cape Community College (ACCC). Tricia's extensive teaching career underscores her dedication to education. Prior to teaching, she gained valuable experience as a concierge at Spring Village Assisted Living and as a teacher's aide in special education at Atlantic City High School. Beyond the classroom, Tricia enjoys a variety of hobbies including baking, bowling, and hiking, with a particular passion for collecting old-fashioned cookie cutters. Tricia's family includes her daughter, Erin. With her wealth of experience and diverse interests, Tricia undoubtedly brings a rich and multifaceted perspective to her role as our PreK-K teacher.

