

meet the TEACHER

Mr. Rodney L. Braithwaite

Physical Education

Rodney L. Braithwaite, a seasoned educator with an impressive 50 years of teaching experience, earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Health and Physical Education with a minor in Recreation from Seton Hall University. Prior to his extensive teaching career, Rodney Staff Bios 2023-24 contributed to the Atlantic City community through roles in both the public school system and the Recreation Department. Outside of the classroom, Rodney's interests span collecting Hess Trucks, playing golf, and bike riding. He shares his home with a beloved Praela Corso dog named Sir. Rodney's family includes a son, four grandchildren, and one great-grandchild. Notably, Rodney is proficient in water safety instruction and holds a certificate of education studies from MIT, showcasing his ongoing commitment to professional development and expertise in his field. With his wealth of experience and diverse skill set, Rodney undoubtedly enriches the educational experience of his PE students and contributes positively to the broader community.

