

meet the TEACHER

Mrs. Francie Josephsen

ESL EDUCATOR

Francie Josephsen, an experienced educator, completed her teacher preparation at Glassboro State College, now Rowan University, majoring in Communications, Education, and Public Relations. She holds a B.A. in Communications, post baccalaureate certification in Elementary Teaching for Grades PreK - 8, and is certified in Elementary Education, ESL, and Elementary Art. Additionally, she earned an M.A. degree in Educational Public Relations. With an impressive 34 years of teaching, Francie retired from the Atlantic City Public Schools in 2019. Beyond the classroom, she channels her creativity into home improvement and DIY projects, exploring various art forms such as painting, digital design, and pottery. A passionate traveler and drone enthusiast, Francie also dedicates time to her collection of Statue of Liberty figurines. In her personal life, she shares her home with a Beagle Dachshund named Isla, and two feline companions, Wink and Hazel Anne. Family holds a special place, with husband Fred, son Dillon, and daughter Olivia.

